

Brian Lynch – Director of Financial Services and Operations, InFaith Community Foundation

Brian Lynch received his B.A. in Business Administration from the University of St. Thomas and his M.B.A. from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota. Brian has spent time in both the non-profit sector and the public sector, working in finance, operations, and development. He currently works at InFaith Community Foundation as the Director of Financial Services and Operations, the third largest community foundation in Minnesota with more than $430M in assets under management. Prior to InFaith Community Foundation he was the Vice President for Advancement at DeLaSalle High School, leading both the business and development offices. In total, Brian spent just under 8 years at DeLaSalle. Prior to DeLaSalle, he spent time at Marquette Partners in Chicago and Honeywell International.