1	Wasn't too bad for a virtual conference however, as most would agree, not nearly as good as in person.	9/30/2020 3:37 PM
2	I liked the trivia on Monday night, but would have liked a mixture of question types.	9/30/2020 2:41 PM
3	Always better "in person," as the conversations and networking with other school leaders brings a lot of added value to the conference.	9/30/2020 11:14 AM
4	I missed most of the morning session, and will review his material. I thought Dr. Werner's content was very applicable but something I have learned before. Overall, learning over Zoom like that is very difficult but I valued the breakout times in her session.	9/30/2020 9:24 AM
5	Thanks for recording the sessions. I had to come in and out in the morning due to student issues and I am anxious to rewatch Paul's.	9/30/2020 8:36 AM
6	Great job! Looking forward to being back onsite next year.	9/29/2020 3:00 PM
7	Perhaps it's my experience and age, but I found the morning sessions to be much more applicable than the afternoon session. Perhaps it was because Jessica seemed to spend a greater amount of time telling stories about herself and her own experiences. My thought was that the two presentations were directly tied to life experience. I am certainly going to investigate Top 20 much more in the coming days.	9/29/2020 2:58 PM
8	Thank you MISF!	9/29/2020 2:58 PM

Q8 Please share ideas for future topics and/or speakers

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Alignment of curriculum and assessments Both summative and formative	9/30/2020 9:02 AM
2	I would be interested in hearing more about what Top 20 actually does for schools and kids.	9/29/2020 2:58 PM
3	SEL for school leaders and educators is in my opinion absolutely critical now, and as the pandemic wanes. We have to commit to showing care and support for all our people. Not just our students. This was a great day, would love to see more.	9/29/2020 2:57 PM

1	Thanks Tim and team for inviting me to help with planning, and for all of your effort! I am extremely busy like all of us, so I was much more distracted in this format and very much look forward to next year's conference, wherever it might be. I valued seeing people and connecting in small ways, but it's obviously just not the same as the normal conference, as I am sure we all agree!! Please keep me on your planning committee!	9/30/2020 9:27 AM
2	They were good. Both kept it on point and moving. Much appreciated.	9/29/2020 2:59 PM
3	We already work with FACTS. Have worked with Thrivent - one of our parents works there.	9/29/2020 2:57 PM

1	It is very important to have "a voice" and someone to support our private and independent schools. I'm very thankful and appreciative of the job MISF does being that supportive voice and for providing private school leaders opportunities to network, support and assist one another.	9/30/2020 11:20 AM
2	Thank you for braving this virtual conference. Even though it is not ideal for meeting virtually, I would not have been available to attend the entire conference if it were to take place at the resort. Financially this was affordable due to the financial status of the diocese at this time. Thank you!	9/30/2020 9:05 AM
3	Well done MISF leaders! Considering the scenario, you knocked it out of the park.	9/29/2020 2:59 PM
4	This is just what the doctor ordered. Timely topics, with inspiration and practical points of connection that I can start with right now. I love connecting with other school leaders in our great state too.	9/29/2020 2:58 PM
5	Nice job putting this together	9/29/2020 2:58 PM
6	MISF is a champion for all the kids in independent schools at a time when we all need all the champions we can get. We are grateful for the work that the MISF team does and amazed at the positive impact they have on our school. We may be independent, but thanks to MISF, we are not alone!	9/29/2020 2:56 PM
